POSTAL BUILDING HERE WITHIN TWO YEARS, FORECAST

Upland Is Near Top on List of Cities Eligible for Building

"I feel that Upland stands a very good chance of receiving a building within a maximum period of two years," wrote Congressman Harry R. Sheppard to the Upland chamber of commerce relative to this city's proposed federal building.

"I am interested in the need of a post office building in Upland and I am checking the eligible list of 18 cities in the Nineteenth congressional district," the letter said.

UPLAND NEAR TOP

"I find that Upland ranks third in post office business in this eligible list of 18. Let me assure you that the needs of Upland will receive every consideration insofar as I am concerned. The selection is a matter which finally is determined by the post office department and the procurement division of the treasury department."

Mr. Sheppard has been contacted by the chamber of commerce from time to time relative to a federal building for Upland. His letter was in reply to a recent one from Upland.

POLICY IS FOLLOWED

In accordance with a recent policy, all cities with post offices of the first class rating are getting federal buildings. When Ontario gets its new federal building, all first class offices in this congressional district will have their own structures.

Cities with second class post offices will be next in line, it is believed. That Upland rates near the top in the second class is indicated by Mr. Sheppard's letter.

Bids have been called for lease on the post office. The new lease is to be for two years, the present lease expiring soon.

Jacob Stocker, One Of City's Pioneer Employes, Succumbs

Jacob Stocker of 536 North First avenue, a resident of Upland for the past 31 years, died shortly after 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zimmerman, 685 West Twenty-first street. He was 83 years old and had been in failing health for some time, having been taken to his daughter's home when his illness became serious about three weeks ago.

Mr. Stocker came to the United States from his native country, Switzerland, in 1882 and lived in Philadelphia for a number of years before coming to Upland.

He was in military service at Thun, Switzerland, from 1875 to 1882. On Sept. 25, 1880, he was married in Thun to Miss Magdalena Dallenbach and they became the parents of six children, four of whom died in infancy. Mrs. Stocker passed away here on June 18, 1915, and a son, J. C. Stocker, builder and contractor, died in Upland in January, 1920.

Upon coming to Upland Mr. Stocker was employed at the Mountain View Fruit association packing house for three years.

For 25 years Mr. Stocker was an employe of the street department of the city of Upland, retiring only a few years ago. He was given special recognition by the city officials for his efficient work.

Besides his daughter, Mrs. Zimmerman, Mr. Stocker leaves nine grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the Stone chapel, with Dr. R. C. Stone, pastor emeritus of the Upland Presbyterian church, officiating. Interment will take place in Bellevue cemetery.

Building Permits Total $55,630 Due To City Hall Work

Total of building permits issued in Upland this month was today $55,630.

Had it not been for the new city hall's permit of $55,095, the August figures would have been the lowest of any month this year. Four other permits for small repairs have been issued besides the one for the city hall.

Uplanders After Same Job

Godfrey Andreas

Floyde L. Atwood

Names of two widely known Uplanders will be on Tuesday's ballot. Unless one of them receives a majority of votes in the Republican and Democratic parties, names of Floyde L. Atwood and Godfrey Andreas will again be on the November ballot. They are seeking election as assemblyman, to represent this district in the state legislature.

Chosen at a Republican caucus to be a candidate, Mr. Atwood's chances of nomination and election are considered good by many friends and supporters.

A veteran of two terms in the legislature, a former city councilman and an active campaigner, Mr. Andreas' outlook is considered bright by numerous loyal supporters.

In any event, outcome of Tuesday's election is awaited with unusual interest. Nomination of a governor, U. S. senator and other officers is highly important, but to many people the most interesting race of all the candidates is being waged by the two Upland citrus growers.

Grier Will Be Elected On County Board Sixth Time

Election of C. E. Grier of Upland as a member of the San Bernardino county board of supervisors is assured.

Unopposed for reelection, the widely known Uplander is expected to poll a large complimentary vote on Tuesday. On the county board continuously for 20 years, Tuesday's vote will be the sixth time Mr. Grier has received the endorsement of residents and taxpayers. Prior to going onto the county board, Mr. Grier was a city councilman.

OUTSTANDING SERVICE

As chairman of the board for 10 years, Mr. Grier has been outstanding in directing county affairs, in making possible tax reductions and in coordinating the county, state and federal relief program.

His services have not only been of inmeasureable benefit to the county, but also to the state. For example, today he is in San Francisco attending a meeting of the statewide committee organized to revise California's relief laws. Mr. Grier is chairman of the committee. Directing a far-reaching survey of relief systems in various states and their effectiveness in handling all types of cases, the committee will draft a series of proposed changes in California's laws and submit the revised program to the legislature next year.

AIDS COUNTY, STATE

Because of Mr. Grier's wide knowledge of the relief problem, his leadership of the committee will result in benefits in this county and the entire state.

He is generally recognized as California's outstanding student in taxation problems.

Voters in the second supervisorial district, therefore, have an opportunity Tuesday to reelect the Uplander with a large complimentary vote.

Voters in Precinct No. 2 Cast Ballots At Harris Residence

Attention of all voters in precinct No. 2 is called to the change made in the voting place in the election Tuesday. First arrangements were made for the booth at the home of H. W. Cordes and notices to that effect appeared in the press. Later it was found necessary to change the booth to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. W. Harris, 411 East Foothill boulevard.

Mrs. Harris stated yesterday that the balloting in precinct No. 2 will be held at her home and the notices of polling places enclosed with the sample ballots mailed out this week also name the Harris residence as the place of voting.

This notice is being given for the benefit of those who may have been guided by the information given in the first announcement.

NEW NAVEL CROP WILL BE LARGER

1939 Production Likely To Be Ahead of This Year, Coy Predicts

Next year's Navel orange crop is likely to be "just as big or bigger than this year's crop," John P. Coy, county horticultural commissioner, said today.

Not at all optimistic over the sales possibilities, Mr. Coy added: "At least the outlook in California and Florida is that more fruit will be produced than can be sold profitably."

He based his prediction on the size and quantity of oranges now in the groves.

"It is possible that some of the fruit will not 'size up' properly, but in general the crop outlook is very excellent."

Two Girls Coming From Panama for Chaffey Classes

Title for long distance traveling to reach the Chaffey junior college campus is expected to be held by Julia and Hilda Jensen, who are coming from Panama to enroll for classes next month. They were Chaffey students last year, Julia being a freshman in the jaysee and her sister a high school senior.

Parents of the girls formerly resided in Los Angeles, but now they live in far away Panama. Chaffey, however, was apparently very favorably known to the girls' parents, who want them to be educated in America.

Many students have registered from several states other than California but the two girls will have traveled the farthest.

Moore Residence on Second Avenue Sold To G. Ruben Asper

Mr. and Mrs. G. Ruben Asper of 232 East G street have purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Clay W. Moore their residence at 746 North Second avenue, the deal being closed yesterday by Thos. G. Redmon. The Aspers will take possession of their newly acquired property late in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore and their sons, Herman and Estes, will move to their five acre lemon ranch on Hervey avenue, south of Arrow highway and west of San Antonio avenue. This is a young grove, not yet in bearing, and the Moores desire to see that it has the best of care while maturing.

CITY PAYROLL IN YEAR IS $42,342

Wages and Salary Total $2,240 Higher Than for Year Recently Closed

Wages and salaries paid by the city during the current year are scheduled to total $42,342. This is a slight increase over the amount paid to city employes during the fiscal year ending June 30. Outlay for the payroll is nearly half of the total budget.

The new budget expense figure is $90,749.

Increase in the payroll is due to the addition of one officer in the police department, slight increase in highway work and to slight increases in pay given six employes.

Amount paid to municipal officers and employes last year totaled $39,101.68, which is $2,240.32 under the payroll budgeted for the current year.

The police department payroll will be $1,121 higher than formerly.

CANYON ROAD GETS OIL COVERING AS TRAFFIC IS HEAVY

1,000 Cars Week Average Since Resort Route Opened July 30

Oil covering is today being placed on the new San Antonio canyon road to further improve the recently completed route to the nearby resorts.

An average of 1,000 cars a week have been driven over the new route since it was opened July 30. On Sunday 500 machines were counted at the entrance to the canyon road by United States forest rangers.

While those who worked for the rebuilding of the flood-ruined canyon highway were optimistic, the number of motorists using the route far exceeds their expectations. Further improvement of the canyon road is likely to be followed by a bigger increase in traffic.

Owners of the cabins in the canyon area are the most frequent users of the highway, yet many other vacationers are taking advantage of the accommodations available at the resorts that were undamaged by the March flood.

CHAFFEY'S OLDEST BUILDING DOOMED

Annex Erected in 1908 Being Razed After Years of Service

One of the oldest buildings on the Chaffey campus was being razed today. Known in recent years as the "Annex" to the liberal arts building, the structure is being torn down after having served as a classroom.

It is at the rear of the new liberal arts building. The site will be beautified and become a part of the campus landscaping project.

When the liberal arts building was torn down more than two years ago, the "Annex" was used as a small classroom building. With completion of the first unit of the science building, the "Annex" will no longer be needed for class purposes.

The annex was erected in 1908 and served as a part of the original Ontario high school. The Chaffey high school district was organized about 10 years later.

A WPA project was recently approved to provide the funds for demolition of the structure.

Emergency Room at Hospital Changed

Placing of the emergency room adjacent to the ambulance entrance at the San Antonio Community hospital is an improvement under way at the local institution. A room formerly used for storage and for miscellaneous purposes is being converted into the emergency department.

Office of Dr. A. A. Aita, hospital superintendent, is being changed to the former emergency room and Dr. Aita's office near the front lobby will be used for filing of all hospital records.

200 MEN WORKING ON CITRUS PESTS

Spraying and Fumigating Crews Busy Throughout Upland Area

More than 200 men are today in the battle against many citrus pests throughout the Upland district. Spraying and fumigating crews are at work on a wide front, seeking to rid the thousands of acres of citrus trees of the various scales and other pests.

The pest control campaign will continue until the end of the year. On some days work has to be curtailed because of the heat. The spray can be applied only in moderate temperatures. About a dozen fumigating crews are at work, their tents being hoisted over the trees at night.

Due to the climatic conditions early in the spring and summer, several varieties of the pests obtained a strong foothold. For that reason the pest control campaign is one of most extensive in years.

First-Time Voters Plan To Form Citizenship Club

First-time voters—young people who are going to cast their first ballots this year—are going to unite as a club to provide a public opportunity to analyze candidates and issues prior to the November election.

Idea for such an organization is an outgrowth of Monday night's banquet and citizenship program here. John Steven McGroarty, who spoke at that meeting, suggested such a club be formed. Upland chamber of commerce officials today contacted various first-time voters who were present Monday night to suggest definite organization plans.

Early next month a date will be set for all interested young voters to meet and discuss possible programs during the pre-election period. Names of more than 100 first-time voters in this district are available and notices about the proposed organization meeting will be sent to them by the chamber of commerce.

APPROVES PLAN

"I think such an organization will help young people realize their responsibility in government," said Harold Eshelman, one of the first-time voters at Monday's program. "Individually, some of the young voters might think about some of the issues. Perhaps as a group better consideration can be given to the various questions."

Bruce Horak expressed the belief that an organization of young voters would be "a step in the right direction and would help encourage all voters to think more about candidates." While he believes that this might be "just another organization," he strongly approved of the plan.

GET SERIOUS

Eddie MacLean, a young business man, said it was "about time that an effort was made to encourage more people to get serious about elections."

President-elect Fred H. Jacobs will take the first lead in getting the young voters together on a non-partisan basis. He assumes office September 1. A few days later notices probably will be sent to all young voters in Upland, Alta Loma, Cucamonga and Etiwanda.

Approximately 125 first-time voters are in this district.

Perschbacher Off Voting Board First Time in 28 Years

For the first time in 28 years, J. B. Perschbacher will not be on the election board in the primary election.

While he was appointed as one of the officials to assist in handling the votes for Tuesday's election, the pioneer vote-counter has resibned from the election board.

"I have always liked to be on the board but I just didn"t want to do it this year," explained the Uplander, who served for the first time in 1910.

He couldn't recall definitely the polling place in the 1910 election, but L. N. Kirk, a member of the board, helped him out.

ON 1910 BOARD

The 1910 election board included Mr. Perschbacher, Mr. Kirk, Ed Bowden, Reid Bordwell and J. W. Mehl. I was in Mr. Kirk's residence which was then located on the site of the new city hall. When the city purchased that property years ago, the residence was moved to East Arrow highway near Sixth avenue.

"It is interesting to be at the polls and to observe the people's attitude when they vote and I have always enjoyed counting the votes," Mr. Perschbacher said.

Every two years the Uplander, who resides at 1520 West Arrow highway, has been on the election board.

NEW EXPERIENCE

"I don't recall any special incident during the 1910 election except that I remember it as a new experience," continued Mr. Perschbacher. "In each succeeding election I happened to be named on the board and I began to look forward to the next election."

Sometimes voters need assistance in acquainting them with the ballot, where they are supposed to mark it and the like.

"As I recall it the people in 1910 had about the same attitude in balloting as they do now—except the ballots in recent years have been longer." he said. "Next Tuesday's election and the one in November will be very hard for the voters—as well as the vote counters."

City Officials To Convene in Colton

Upland city officials will be in Colton tonight for the August meeting of the Citrus Belt division of the California League of Municipalities. Ralph E. Swing will speak on "Liquor Control."

Several Upland officials are planning to attend the state convention of the league next month. Richard G. Manley, city manager, who is president of the city manager's division of the league, will preside over the gathering of city managers.

Etiwanda Justice Nears Eighth Term

For Judge Thomas Donnelly of Etiwanda Tuesday's electiin will be just a formality. He has been justice of the peace since 1910.

Unopposed for reelection, the new term will add additional service to his long record. As far as is known he has been in office longer than any other person in the county.

Prison Work Going Ahead on Chino Site

Work of installing water lines and other preliminary features at El Rincon prison is reported to be rapidly progressing. Roads to serve the new institution are being graded. Materials for the prison's 24 buildings are to be hauled over the roads.

Site for the prison is a tract of 2,556 acres acquired by the state at a cost of $650,000.

Florence Armstrong and Lois Kent, teachers, have leased the former Hitt residence on West Twenty-fourth street and they will live there during the school term. Miss Kent has been advanced to the head of the home economics department at Chaffey high school. Miss Armstrong is principal of the Eighteenth street school.

MISS ANTHONY'S WORK IS LAUDED

Mrs. Una R. Winter Tells Lions of Dedicatory Ceremonies

Some of the impressiveness, dignity and importance of the recent ceremony in dedicating a tree to the memory of Susan B. Anthony was explained yesterday at the meeting of the Upland Lions club in the Red Hill Country club house by Mrs. Una R. Winter.

Only in California has there been such a recognition given the memory of the woman patriot and only in this state was it possible, Mrs. Winter explained in telling about a tree 269 feet in height being dedicated as a Susan B. Anthony tree in Sequoia national park.

About a year ago, Mrs. Winter said she thought of such a possibility. Later when she and George L. Winter, her husband, were vacationing in the park the thought of honoring Miss Anthony's memory occurred to him. They made preliminary arrangements then. In the months that followed, Mrs. Winter contacted interested leaders of various organizations. In February the plans were announced for such a dedicatory program. The program was held June 26, with Mrs. Winter presiding. Many from here went to the park at that time for the dedicatoryy ceremonies.

Miss Anthony is credited with making woman suffrage a reality

"In 1878 she wrote what later became the nineteenth amendment," Mrs. Winte said. "She was the first woman ever to have a part in the framing of the United States Constitution. It took the nation 32 years to adopt her contribution to the constitution."

Mrs. Winter's glowing report of the dedicatory exercises and her appraisal of what Miss Anthony means to the nation formed a very interesting and inspiring program for the Lions.

L. A. Fox served as program chairman. Howard N. Mason, president, was in charge of the meeting. Mr. Winter was also a club guest.

FARMING WITHOUT SOIL NEW PROJECT FOR TWO YOUTHS

Chemicals Will Be Used in Producing Vegetables And Flowers

Farming without soil on a commercialized basis is a new venture being planned by Carrol Sachs of Upland and Richard Bryan of Camp Baldy. They are preparing to grow vegetables and flowers with chemicals. As far as is known this will be the second time that such a venture has ever been launched.

In small experimental plots, various individuals throughout the southland have produced tomatoes from plants placed in a jar of liquid chemicals. Using the same theory, the Chaffey students, who in June were graduated by Chaffey junior college, will produce crops on a commercial scale.

OFFER IS MADE

Location of the plot on which they will grow fruits, vegetables and flowers has not been determined, but it has been reported the Fontana Farms Co. has offered to sponsor the project.

Hydroponics, which is the scientific term for plant culture in chemical gardening. Results studied by the youths during the last two months.

It has been learned that six times the normal yield in fruit has been achieved through the use of chamecal gardening. Results never obtainable in soil farming can be secured by the new method, the young farmers believe.

MUST HEAT TANKS

Tanks, in which to grow the products, must be aerated as well as heated. Among the plants which the local youths plan to test are strawberries. They will attempt to grow strawberries out of season.

Considerable experimentation lies ahead for the young chemically-minded farmers. Mr. Sachs, the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Sachs, 185 East Seventh street, was an outstanding chemistry student. He will continue his experimentation in new endeavor.

Baby Bowden Finds New Kind of "Kitty" Is Merry Playmate

Cats or rats?—they're all kitties to little Arlene Bowden.

Arlene is the three year old daugther of Mr. and Mrs. William Bowden of 615 West Seventeenth street.

"Mother, give me something to feed my kitty," lisped Arlene on a recent day.

"But, my dear, we have no kitty," stated Mrs. Bowden.

"O, yes we have," the baby insisted confidently. "You come and see."

And Mrs. Bowden saw.

The little girl ran into the yard and immediately a large black and white rat emerged from somewhere and made itself at home in the baby's arms.

How long the baby and the rat had been playmates the parents do not know, but at least long enough to become very well acquainted. The rat appears whenever it hears Arlene's voice and is quite content when eating lettuce from her chubby hands.

Model Railroad To Operate on Sept. 6

Progress has been made in the construction of model railway trains and the miniature railway system can be seen in operation here Sept. 6.

The Pomona Valley Model Railway club members have been constructing a miniature transportation system and railway trains at their headquarters, Second avenue just north of A street. Four trains will be in operation Sept. 6.

Five signal blocks have also been erected and will be used in the dispatching of the trains over the system.

An unusually large turnout of voters is anticipated. Nearly 2,000 persons obtained absentee voters ballots from County Clerk Harry Allison.

TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

Train up a child in the way he should go.—Proverbs 22:6.

Primary Election Next Tuesday

Next Tuesday will be an important day in California—the date of the primary election. On that day the people will vote for their choice of candidates to be nominated for United States senator, congressman, state and district offices. An occasion of this kind should not be taken lightly. The candidates and the policies for which they stand should be considered carefully and the voters should cast their ballots in accordance with their convictions.

With the choice of United States senator and congressmen national policies are at stake. We feel that the outstanding candidate of all the field on both tickets for senator is Ray L. Riley, who has a long record of efficient service in California as a member of the board of supervisors in San Bernardino county and in important state offices for a number of years. His record as state controller attracted favorable attention throughout the nation. He is a candidate for the Republican nomination.

Candidate for the Republican nomination for congressman from this district is T. C. Johnson of San Bernardino, well known and having been endorsed by the Republican "grass roots" convention in Riverside some months ago.

If you are opposed to the Democratic New Deal policies that have gotten the country into its present deplorable condition these are the men to choose to represent you in Washington.

The record of Gov. Frank F. Merriam is such that he should be nominated in the primary and reelected at the general election in November. The accomplishments of Gov. Merriam include: an equitable tax system that has provided sufficient funds to maintain good state government, economy that has made a pay-as-you-go policy possible, an equitable policy toward relief workers, cooperation with the federal government in obtaining California's full share of benefits, elimination of the state's $30,000,000 deficit and balancing of the budget—and other noteworthy accomplishments. Gov. Merriam is serving his first term as governor of the state—and "one good term deserves another." His political record of many years has been clean and above reproach.

Senator Ralph Swing of San Bernardino has an enviable record at Sacramento over a period of sixteen years. Through his effective service he has advanced the interests of San Bernardino county perhaps more than any other individual.

In the matter of county offices the choice of candidates should be made on the basis of efficiency and character. All county officials are up for reelection and so far as we know their records are such that they are entitled to remain in their positions. In private industry and business employes are retained as long as their services are satisfactory—and we can see no reason why the same rule should not hold good in public office.

Garden Notes

By Bill Gilliland

FLOWERS IN WINTER

With the abundance of color in the garden right now, it takes a person with foresight to realize that it is none too early to plan and plant the winter garden. Planting within the next few weeks will determine whether your flowers bloom through the winter or wait until next spring.

The variety of bedding plants for fall planting is rather limited, for there are not many small plants which will withstand the frost.

CERTAIN TO BLOOM

Heading the list are the calendulas or winter marigolds. Don't confuse the new types with the little ones which volunteer each year in the garden. Some of the new ones produce double flowers four or more inches across and can be relied upon to bring brilliance in the middle of winter. They come in colors or orange and yellow. Recently a variety called calendula chrysantha has been developed. As the name suggests, the blossom resembles a chrysanthemum in form and has shaggy yellow petals. If you ever saw a bed of these in bloom you wouldn't be without them. Plant them in sun or part shade.

Next are the winter flowering stock. These like a well drained soil and quite a lot of sunshine. If the soil is too heavy the water stands around the roots in periods of rainy weather and causes them to rot. With stock, the colors are more varied. They may be had in white, pink, red, cream and lavender. Snapdragons, long a favorite, also come in a variety of colors: yellow, white, bronze, pink red and various shades between.

RUST RESISTANT

Several years ago we were all enthusiastic because rust proof snapdrogans had been developed. They were very popular and were quite satisfactory. Recently, however, although just as resistant as ever to the original type of rust, a new type has begun to attack them so that last year we were all disappointed to see some rust develop. Perhaps this is the reason they are referred to as rust resistant instead of rust proof. This means that our former methods of protection should be employed. Use ample fertilizer to promote vigor and add some sulphur to the soil to discourage the development of rust. If possible, plant your snapdragons in a new location. In this way you may find a soil which does not have any rust spores in it.

PRIMROSE FOR SHADE

The primroses are reliable plants for growing well in the shade. In additionn to the regular shades of white, lavender, pink, and red there is a new one called primula kleyni, which has deep yellow blossoms.

PANSIES IN OCTOBER

In planning the garden keep in mind that the new crop of pansies and violas can be planted in October. You may want to leave room in the beds for some of these hardy favorites.

TRAFFIC DEATHS IN 26 PER CENT DECLINE IN YEAR

46 People Killed in Rural Sections of County—Highways Help

Improved highways and improved driving on the part of motorists were credited today with a 26 per cent decrease in the number of deaths in auto accidents in rural sections of San Bernardino county so far in 1938.

Captain Frank Freeman of the county unit of the California highway patrol said that 46 people have met death in auto crashes this year as compared with 58 fatalities for the corresponding period in 1937. This record, however, does not include the accidents or the deaths inside cities in the county.

All statistics in connection with the traffic flow for this year as compared with last year reveal a noticeable improvement. Number of accidents for 1938 is 283 as compared with 306 a year ago. The number injured in accidents is 409 for this year as compared with 446 up to this time in 1937.

Decrease in the number of persons killed or injured is said to be due largely to the recent widening of Foothill and Valley boulevards, to improvements on other highways and to removal of traffic hazards throughout the county.

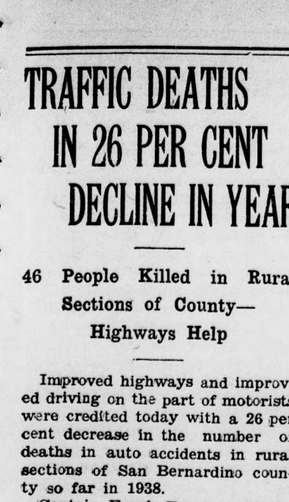

Captain Freeman also pointed out that motorists have a more cautious attitude in driving and that the educational campaigns are apparently bringing results.

Until recent months, Foothill boulevard was the scene of many tragic crashes. Since it has been widened to four lanes with a dividing safety lane in the center, however, very few accidents have occurred and there have been no fatalities on Foothill since the widening was completed nearly three months ago.

Valley boulevard, another thoroughfare frequently the scene of suffering and deaths, has also been free of fatal crashes since it was widened.

HEIGHTS PROJECT SOUGHT FROM WPA

Frankish Canyon Storm Drain May Be Placed If Work Is Approved

Flood protection in San Antonio Heights is now being sought through the filing of a WPA project. Two former attempts to get funds for paving Frankish canyon and construction of a debris basin have failed.

The city of Upland sought to get a share of funds allotted by the state for flood repairs and flood control. The allotment was not made.

Upland joined with the county last Friday in seeking state funds. While the sum of $150,000 was granted the county, the schedule of work does not include anything for flood protection in the Heights.

The county, however, is preparing a WPA project seeking to get federal funds and WPA workers in realizing the project.

Since the fire several years ago at the mouth of San Antonio canyon, flood waters have rushed down Frankish canyon, causing considerable damage to citrus and residential property.

ROBERT TAYLOR IN RUGGED TYPE OF CHARACTER

In choosing Robert Taylor for the leading role in "The Crowd Roars," Mtero-Goldwyn-Mayer not only gave him the kind of a part he can handle to the nth degree but also assured themselves of a star who can carry parts of the virile, rugged type which occasionally come up.

In "The Crowd Roars," Taylor does a superb job as the light-heavyweight who fights his way to the top of the heap, ably assisted by Maureen O'Sullivan, Edward Arnold and Lionel Stander. This program, together with Jane Withers in "Keep Smiling," will start Sunday at the Fox Pomona theatre. Continuous shows will be presented from 2:15.

Final showings of "Alexander's Ragtime Band," the biggest hit show in the last ten years, are set for Saturday night.

Mrs. Harold Cady and Daughters Greeted At Park Picnic

With approximately 40 friends gathered to greet them, Mrs. Harold B. Cady and daughters, the Misses Marjorie and Katharine, former residents of Alta Loma who are on vacation from their home in Hawaii, were guests of honor at a delightful picnic held Tuesday in Galvin park in Ontario.

While living in Alta Loma Mrs. Cady was a popular member of the Cucamonga - Alta Loma Woman's club and Mrs. Harry M. Wright, president of the club, and Mrs. E. S. Bishop planned the informal event as a courtesy from the club.

Mrs. Cady also was active in P.-T. A. affairs, serving as president of the Alta Loma association, and several members of that group joined in the picnic.

The well planned picnic luncheon was served at 1 o'clock, a pleasant hour being spent about the park tables.

During the afternoon Mrs. Cady told of her experiences since making her home on the islands and she answered many questions concerning the fascinating portion of the United States. The scenery, the climate of the islands, the volcanoes and the social and economic conditions, all were subjects of interesting discussion.

Adding to the delight of the picnickers, the Misses Marjorie and Katharine in native hula costumes appeared in several interpretative Hawaiian dances, their perfect technique and grace charming their friends. Besides appearing in duet numbers, the talented girls also did solo dances, being accompanied by phonographic records of Hawaiian music. Marjorie danced interpretations of "T oYou, Sweetheart, Aloha" and "Little Grass House," while Katharine performed the "Manuelo Boy" dance.

The dancing attracted attention of other groups enjoying parties and recreation in the park, and a large audience quickly gathered to watch the performance.

In the picnic party were Mrs. Cady and her two daughters, Mrs. Charles Beckley, Mrs Arthur H. Bridge, Mrs. Leslie Foster, Mrs Ray R. Ford, Mrs. E. R. Hively, Mrs. Harold Hively, Mrs. Geo. E. Keyes, Mrs. John McPherson, Mrs. Mary W. Minor, Mrs. Robert Nesbit, Mrs. W. Herbert Powelson, Mrs. Edna Patterson, Mrs. Arthur Relph, Mrs. Henry Thomas, Mrs. L. J. Thomas, Mrs. L. R. Thomas, Mrs. Francis S. Wagner, Miss Mary Albert, Mrs. C. R. Wainright, Mrs. Harry M. Wright and Mrs. E. S. Bishop, all of the Woman's club; Mrs. Clifford Beekman, Mrs. Wilbur Minor, Mrs. Edmund Hogancamp, Mrs. Victor Cherbak and Mrs. Glenn Dellenbach, of the Alta Loma Parent-Teacher association; also the Misses Louise Thomas, Derelys Ann and Lyolen Jeraine Wainright, Patty, Phyllis and Margaret Beekman, Virginia Cherbak and Margaret and Ethel Minor.

Mrs. Cady and daughters are staying with Mrs. Cady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fiske, in Eagle Rock.

Miss Ruth Eyster and Floyd Brubaker Take Marriage Vows in Beautiful Church Ceremony Tuesday Evening

The Brethren in Christ church provided the setting for one of the most beautiful weddings of the summer Tuesday evening, when Miss Ruth Carol Eyster, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Eyster of 637 North Third avenue, and Floyd D. Brubaker of Los Angeles, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Brubaker of LaVerne, were united in marriage. A dignified simplicity marked the ceremony and there also was an atmosphere of happiness that the guests found contagious.

Decorations for the occasion included a huge central bouquet of pink and yellow gladioli and blue delphinium, arranged sunburst fashion, against a semi-circular background of potted palms. On each side of the floral basket stood a tall white candelabrum with white cathedral candles, and white wedding bells with bows of white ribbons and fernery were attached to the pews, marking the aisle down which the bridal party passed.

Preceding the ceremony the pianist, Mrs. Harvey Brubaker of El Monte, played several selections and as the wedding hour approached she played "Bells of St. Mary's" and "To a Wild Rose," while two ushers lighted the candles. With Mrs. Brubaker accompanying, Harvey Brubaker, brother of the bridegroom, sang "Until," the Apollo men's quartet, formerly of LaVerne college, sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," and Mrs. Raymond Niesley sang "I Love You Truly."

For the processional Mrs. Brubaker played the "Bridal Chorus" from Wagner's "Lohengrin" as the bridegroom and his brother, Raymond Brubaker of LaVerne, who served as best man, entered from a side door and approached the altar to await the coming of the bridal party, which was led by an usher, D. Stanley Engle of Hollywood, a cousin of the bride. Second in the procession was the bridesmaid, Miss Esther Byberg of Los Angeles, wearing a floor length gown of pastel pink chiffon with a short veil of the same shade. The maid of honor, Miss Edith Eyster, sister of the bride, was attired in a gown of pastel green chiffon, floor length, and with it she wore a short, full veil of matching green shade. Both attendants carried arm bouquets of Talisman roses and lavender sweet peas.

Immediately preceding the bride was the dainty little flower girl, Phyllis Jo Burkholder, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Alvin C. Burkholder. She wore a frock of yellow silk crepe and carried a basket of gardenia, dahlia and sweet pea petals.

The ushers, besides D. Stanley Engle, were Glen Zook of Claremont, Cecil Teeter of Pomona and Galen Smith of LaVerne.

The bride, accompanied by her father, was attired in a gown of ivory satin, fashioned princess style, with long sleeves and cowl neck, and with it she wore a fingertip circular veil with a halo of tulle, held in place with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias, white orchids and maidenhair fern.

As the bride reached the altar she was greeted with a song, "For You Alone," beautifully sung by the bridegroom.

The marriage ceremony was performed jointly by Dr. D. Webster Kurtz, pastor of the Church of the Brethren at LaVerne, and the Rev. Mr. Eyster, father of the bride and paston of the Brethren in Christ church at Chino. Dr. Kurtz read the first part of the ceremony, with the father giving his daughter in marriage and then moving to his place behind the altar while the Apollo quartet sang "O Perfect Love." The Rev. Mr. Eyster then completed the ceremony, reading the civil part of the service and invoking Divine blessing upon the union.

The bridal party left the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" and paused in the vestibule to receive the congratulations of the 200 guests in attendance.

Later a reception for 70 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents, with Mrs. Eyster, as hostess, wearing a gown of navy blue sheer. Mrs. Brubaker, mother of the bridegroom, wore a light blue silk voile and each wore a corsage of gardenias.

A large white wedding cake with rose decorations was cut by the bride and refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Brubaker left at once for a motor trip of unannounced destination, the bride wearing a poudre blue jacket dress with navy blue accessories.

The bride is a dietitian in the Webb school at Claremont and the bridegroom is employed at the Broadway department store in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Brubaker will reside at 501 North Fifth street, Covina.

Among the out of town guests at the wedding were relatives and friends from Long Beach, Laguna, Los Angeles, Hollywood, Pasadena, Whittier, Anaheim, Orange and LaVerne.

Cranmer Election As Assessor Urged Due to Fine Record

Max A. Cranmer

The importance of many county offices is being overlooked in the absorbing interest aroused by national issues and bitter partisan campaigns.

Non-partisan county offices are a matter of immediate importance to citizens. The County Assessor's office is particularly so to all property owners, and we need to look well to our vote in that particular office.

For three years Max A. Cranmer has held the office of assessor by appointment of the Board of Supervisors, and during that time he has proven to be a capable, loyal and diligent public official, devoted to the interests of all the people. He has maintained an efficient working force at a minimum of expense to the taxpayers. He has introduced labor saving and simplified methods and has kept the office on a high plane of service and friendliness and of cooperation with all other county departments.

For his ability, his fairness, for the maintenance of a well organized staff, and for the savings to taxpayers by keeping efficient men in office, we urge the reelection of Max A. Cranmer as County Assessor. Signed by friends.—Political adv.

"Meet Your Son"

By ERNEST ANDREW ROGERS
National Child Welfare Authority; President, Montezuma School for Boys

On your son's roster of attributes whose importance was never before so vital, is that of sound use of his leisure hours. Because today he faces the prospect of increasing rather than diminishing leisure—a prospect of more and more "spare" time at his personal disposal—it becomes increasingly imperative for him to know how to devote it to his best interests—and to lose none of the joy that is rightfully his in the process.

He learns in school the important academic lessons he needs as factual foundation for all the knowledge he'll gather in the years to come. He exercises and develops his mental powers in the classroom, in conversation with his fellows and with his elders. In Sunday school and church he absorbs the theological teachings his parents desire for him. And at home he should find the basis and background for all his moral and ethical training.

But it is a boy's "spare" time—when he's neither at school not at church; when he's not doing errands, working at a job, nor engaged in any of the other pursuits laid out for him by his mentors—that he can be his truest self. For that is the part of his life that is most nearly his own.

With most of his waking hours patterner pretty conventionally for him—it is in his leisure hours that the average boy is able to do the things he wants to do, building or marring his character, creating a strong or a weak foundation for the future.

It is then, perhaps, that he explores, invents, experiments. Or perhaps he pursues a favorite hobby. And whether it's art, mechanics, music, chemistry, dramatics or wood-craft, every boy ought to have a hobby. Just as they're good for grown-ups, to kindle mental or physical vitality, or to strengthen morale, they're good for children for virtually the same reasons. They are not merely a means of escape when the pressure is great, they are fulfillment of a vital inner need. And they are a practical asset.

It is, for instance the boy who can play a guitar or impersonate others who gets the job at some summer camp. His hobby of "collecting"—whether butterflies or stamps or anything else of interest—may lead your son eventually to writing special raticles for magazines. School dramatic work may guide a youngster into the community players, and later, onto the legitimate stage; whether it does or not is more or less immaterial, unless that's the career he yearns for. But through all his busy, creative hours, a boy is building as important a part of his future as in the hours he actually prepares for his bread-and-butter job or his planned life work.

He is fortunate indeed if he learns while still a very little fellow that "spare" time is one of his most valued possessions; golden hours too precious to waste on things he's only half-way interested in, when the world's so full of fine, constructive things to learn and to do—that are fun.

Another Species of "Kitty" Discovered By Old Baldy Crew

A thin little creature, with a round head too large for its half-starved body, crawled from a pile of lumber and walked aimlessly on a wavering course across the lot at the Old Baldy packing house on Nineteenth street, one day in the early part of this week.

Several workmen nearby had little difficulty in capturing the baby wildcat, which was too nearly starved to put up a fight.

The entire packing house personnel vied in finding something the "kitty" would eat, and after repeated trials it was found that juicy raw liver was quite acceptable. It now is eating most anything it can get hold of.

The baby cat is domiciled in a nice new cage, its once pitifully flat little tummy is ounding out as all kitties' tummies should do, and the green-eyed little denizen of the wilds is growing sharp claws with which to scratch the hands of its benefactors bye and bye.

Just how the wildcat came to be so far from its natural home, is not known. But recent reports of opossums, rattlesnakes, coyotes, and pole cats—and now the wildcat—would indicate that Upland really is "in the sticks."

LET 'EM WEAP

Claremont Courier: We Americans are a strange people. We'll drive from 10 to 75 miles or walk six extra blocks in order to save a cent on a bunch of carrots or two cents on a box of granulated soap. Meanwhile we tolerate government spending of tax money that renders the proverbial expression about the spending ability of a drunken sailor as weak as chicken broth in a Greek restaurant. In short, we are vigorous savers and equally vigorous wasters.

But when it comes to saving nuts (human variety) we are at our scrimping best. Let some galoot crawl out out the ledge of a high building with the avowed intention of making a splash on the sidewalk below, and instead of going home and starting dinner we cluster around the building like ants around a discarded all-day sucker, wring our hands, spread safety nets, and try to save the recruit for some over-crowded asylum, jail or relief roll.

Too bad we can't pay about one-tenth of that attention to a few of our brilliant people who find themselves in desperate circumstances. There are plenty of them right now, but no one is losing any sleep over providing safety nets for them, chiefly because they are plugging along trying to keep body and soul together and not cluttering up cornices of 10-story buildings.

WHAT'S VALUABLE?

San Beriardino Evening Telegram: A Chicago man who has just made a tour of the southwest is back home now, waiting for blindness to come upon him. Seeing the southwest was his life's ambition, and now that he has realized it he is ready, he says, for the fate which specialists have told him will overtake him witnin a year's time.

He knew what he wanted to do more than anything else, and when it became clear to him suddenly how little time was remaining to do it in he found a way to get it done.

He was different from many men in more than his accomplishment of the thing he was after. He knew what he wanted.

If you were told now that your sight would be gone in a year's time, what task would you set your eyes to? Is it your chief ambition to see certain places in the earth? Are there books you have always looked forward to reading? Works of art you always hoped some day to see?

Imagining that your sight is only a temporary possession is a good way to discover exactly what it is your spirit holds valuable. And the terror of it ought to be sufficient to shock you into he determination to go after those experiences—instead of spending the rest of your days merely looking forward to them.

CALIFORNIA, HERE WE COME

Beverly Hills Citizen: California is rapidly becoming the dumping ground for the poor of the nation, and something has to be done about it.

Thus bluntly appraising a critical situation, the California Citizens' Association has embarked upon a concerted state-wide drive to hammer home a reasonable and urgent demand—that federal relief agencies should provide for indigent labor at its points of origin.

At the rate of 7000 a month, refugees have been, and are streaming into this state from the drought areas. Relief standards are high, pensions are tempting and California is still a charmed word.

The opportunity to fulfill resident requirements and enjoy the vote is no idle privilege in a state having such liberal bounties. It is a passkey for the jobless, but it is the other Californians who will foot the bill for measures leading to costly expenditures.

In view of current efforts to establish migrant refugees here, supported by federal jobs, citizens have a right to demand, "If the federal government can support them in California, why not in their home state?"

BUT HE FORGOT

Traffic Tidings: He brushed his teenth twice a day with a nationally advertised tooth brush.

The doctor examined him twice a year.

He wore rubbers when it rained.

He slept with the windows open.

He stuck to a diet with plenty of fresh vegetables.

He relinquished his tonsils and traded in several worn-out glands.

He golfed, but never more than 18 holes.

He never smoked, drank or lost his temper.

He did his daily-dozen daily.

He got at least eight hours' sleep each night.

His funeral will be held next Wednesday. He is survived by 18 specialists, four health institutes, six gymnasiums and numerous manufacturers of health foods and antiseptics.

He had forgotten about trains at grade crossings.

Reseda News: It would be enlightening to hear what the Hon. J. S. McGroarty has to say of the Georgia situation where the president is trying to dictate election of the United States senator. Our Congressman rebelled long ago against that sort of thing and it is possible that he has not changed his attitude. Can't he write a stanza or two on the subject?

Union Oil Bulletin: An American vacationing in Europe bought one of these diminutive foreign cars, made a tour of Germany, and was so embarrassed by the daschunds looking in the windows that he sold it before he came home.

80 PER CENT OF MEN ON CITY HALL WORK LIVE HERE

Contractor Giving First Preference to Uplanders on New Building

Eighty per cent of the men employed today in the construction of the Upland city hall are Upland residents, J. J. Bakker, contractor in charge, reported. Several Uplanders had worked for him on other construction projects in the district and these employes and others have been given work, Mr. Bakker explained.

Contract for lumber and cement was let by Bakker & Robinson, who recently submitted the low bid for construction of the project, was let to the W. F. Rugg Lumber Co. This is the fourth local concern to get a sub-contract on the project. Other Upland firms having a part in the building are Manker & Benson, Colborn Electric Co. and the Smith Sheet Metal Works.

Excavation for the footings and for a small basement is underway on the city hall site at Second avenue and D street. Forms will be placed for the concrete walls and the building activities will be rushed as rapidly as possible.

"Throughout construction of the building it is our intention to employ as many local men as possible," explained Mr. Bakker. "We realize that local people should have first call for local work."

An effort had been made by a labor union to force the contractor to use only members of the union, it is reported. Under the present policy, workmen are engaged without any reference to their union affiliation.

Reduce Taxes!

"If elected governor, I pledge you we will live within our income; we will reduce taxes instead of increasing taxes."

NO GAS TAX INCREASE "There is no need or slightest justification for an increase in the gas tax, and if I am elected Governor there will be no such increase. If the state department of public works needs more money for highway construction it should fire some of its political workers and hire highway workers."

HOUSE CLEANING NEEDED "California state government stands in need of a vigorous house-cleaning. It needs to be cleansed of the spoils system; it needs businesslike management; it needs sanity in expenditures; it needs four years of public service without special awards or political favors; it needs to re-win public confidence!

"If you want that type of government, then I earnestly ask your support in my campaign for governor. And if I am elected governor, you will get that kind of government!"

SPORTSMEN'S PARADISE "It is time that California re-won her right to be known as the sportsmen's paradise! If Governor, I shall appoint executive and administrative officers to the Fish and Game Commission, with the finest technical and practical experience, and who will understand fish and game problems—regardless of their politics, and regardless of whether or not they like George Hatfield."

A MESSAGE FROM
RALPH E. SWING

TO THE VOTERS OF SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY:

When I was urged by many people to become a candidate for reelection, they frankly told me they were not particularly interested in my personal welfare, but that now, more than at any other time, San Bernardino County required representation in the Senate by a person familiar with our problems and who had the experience and ability to obtain results.

I rather reluctantly consented, fully realizing the magnitude of the problems confronting us. I knew that unless we approached these problems and solved them with care and caution, most anything could happen. The unemployed, the aged, those on relief, schools, education and the taxpayers are all involved.

The situation is so complicated that it may very easily be badly messed up and result in serious injury to some and perhaps all of those interested.

I believe, however, that my record in the Legislature demonstrates that I can and will faithfully and diligently defend and protect the interests and welfare of this County.

During all the time I have represented this district in the Senate I have, to the very best of my ability, looked after the interests and welfare of the people of this County. True, I have made mistkes, but when we look over the list of things which were actually accomplished, most any fair-minded person will admit that we did a good job.

In these heated campaign days, we hear over the radio and see in the press slanderous charges concerning candidates for public office, from the President down, and it behooves us to stop and consider not only the source but the reason for such charges. The recent legislative investigation conducted by the Sacramento Grand Jury disclosed a situation which resulted in a most searching investigation concerning the record of all members of the Legislature. The result of such investigation demonstrated beyond the peradventure of a doubt that no member of the State Senate was either directly or indirectly involved in any improper or questionable act.

AT NO TIME WHILE I HAVE BEEN A MEMBER OF THE LEGISLATURE HAVE MY ACTIONS BEEN INFLUENCED, EITHER DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, BY OUTSIDE INFLUENCES. I NEITHER HAVE RECEIVED NOR HAVE I BEEN OFFERED RETAINERS OF ANY KIND, NOR HAS ANYONE ATTEMPTED TO INFLUENCE MY ACTION UPON A MEASURE BY CORRUPT METHODS OR BY INTIMIDATION. I HAVE EVER BEEN FAITHFUL TO THE TRUST REPOSED IN ME BY THE PEOPLE OF THIS DISTRICT, AND I HAVE GIVEN THE BEST THERE WAS IN ME TO ACCOMPLISH THE THINGS HELPFUL AND BENEFICIAL TO THE PEOPLE OF THIS DISTRICT.

I was born and reared in San Bernardino and I have devoted my efforts and energies to the upbuilding of the community of my birth, and developing a reputation for truth, honesty and integrity and a record of faithful service as a state officer.

I am proud to present to you, along with this communication, the testimonials of those who know me best.

I pledge you that I shall continue to serve you, whether in office or out of office, as I have in the past, and that I will honestly and to the best of my ability devote my efforts to promoting the general welfare of the people of my district.

RALPH E. SWING

Those Who Know Him and His Work Best Bear Testimony of His Worth!

ALL JUDICIAL DEPARTMENTS ENDORSE SENATOR SWING FOR RE-ELECTION

SUPERIOR COURT JUDGES FRANK A. LEONARD, CHARLES L. ALLISON AND BEN F. WARMER, who have had frequent occasion to review the work of Senator Swing, say:

"We have frequently seen the result of the effective work done by Ralph E. Swing at the State Legislature in behalf of San Bernardino County. He has actively supported good, clean legislation, and has faithfully, efficiently and honestly represented his district and the interests of his people. Many benefits have resulted to this County as a direct result of his efforts.

"SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY NEEDS RALPH E. SWING IN THE SENATE!"

JUDGE RUSSELL A. WICKIZER, intimately familiar with the legislative career of Senator Swing, says:

"As Justice of the Peace of San Bernardino Township I have had frequent occasion to review some of the good, efficient work done by Senator Swing. Throughout his legislative career he has been faithful, efficient and honest in his representation of this County. He knows how to accomplish things and has succeeded in accomplishing many things which have been in the interest of the County and of great benefit to the taxpayers. His particular interest in the poor and unfortunate is outstanding. He has sponsored many measures at the Legislature in the interest of the aged and unemployed. His service has been invaluable. All parties should unite in urging his reelection to the Senate."

JUSTICE MARKS

Justice Marks of the District Court of Appeal, Fourth Division, says:

"During the past nine years it has been part of my duties to review the legislative activities of Senator Swing. He is a most capable, efficient, energetic and honest legislator. He has ably served his County and our State. His long experience, fine service, and marked ability make it necessary to not only San Bernardino County but the entire state that he be continued in the Senate."

JUDGE VAN LUVEN, who has known Senator Swing for years and has reviewed his work, says:

"It gives me great pleasure to urge the return of Mr. Swing to the State Senate. His work there in the interest of San Bernardino County is outstanding. He is recognized as one of the leaders in the Senate and is able to accomplish many things in the interest of his district. His experience and ability is a valuable asset to this County. Legislation is not political nor is it partisan, and for that reason he should have the united support of all parties and all factions."

State Senator Ralph E. Swing, who seeks re-election on his sixteen years of service as Senator from this district

WHAT HIS COLLEAGUES IN THE SENATE HAVE TO SAY ABOUT OUR SENATOR

SENATOR SLATER

Senator Herbert W. Slater, member of the Legislature for thirty years, dean of the Senate, and leading Democratic member of that body, says:

"It has been a pleasure to have worked with Senator Swing for many years in the State Senate, to note his diligence and his study of legislation and his outstanding and unswerving allegiance to his constituency in San Bernardino. No one could have been more attentive in the promoting of legislation desired by his people. And it would appear the district has been most ably represented by him. His service, of course, has not alone concerned San Bernardino but has comprehended the continuing growth of the state, the necessity for further helping the cause of public welfare and in building up California. Such service is invaluable."

MEMBERS OF THE SENATE MOST INTIMATELY ACQUAINTED WITH SENATOR SWING'S WORK, UNITE IN ENDORSING HIM AS A VALUABLE MEMBER OF THE SENATE AND AN EFFICIENT REPRESENTATIVE OF HIS DISTRICT.

SENATOR W. P. RICH,

President Pro Tempore of the State Senate, says:

"Senator Ralph E. Swing was a veteran Legislator when I became a member of the Senate in 1930. The Senator is a combination of extraordinary ability, legislative experience and unbounded energy. He recognizes that his first duty is to the State as a whole and after that he is devoted to the interests of San Bernardino County. He knows how to do things; he does things and he gets things —for San Bernardino County. Very few Senators have brought to their districts the honor and distinction that Senator Swing has brought to San Bernardino County."

SENATOR A. L. PIEROVICH,

Democratic Senator from Amador County, says:

"Senator Swing has done much for his county and the State. His influence in the Senate insures San Bernardino good representation."

SENATOR EDWARD H. LAW,

Democratic Senator, Imperial County, says:

"Senator Swing of San Bernardino is one of the outstanding men in the State Senate. His experience is valuable to the State and to his district. He is honest, efficient and capable—a credit to his district and to the State."

MR. JOSEPH A. NOLAN,

Fifteen years Sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, says:

"Through the efforts of Senator Swing lobbying in the Senate has been banished, and the Senate side of the Legislature is protected from the baneful influence of unprincipled lobbyists."

THE PRESS UNITED

THE NEWSPAPERS OF THE COUNTY ARE UNANIMOUS IN DEMANDING THE RETURN OF SENATOR SWING TO THE STATE SENATE.

R. W. RUHL,
Editor of the Medford Oregon, says:

"Senator Swing isn't much to look at but stands head and shoulders above his colleagues in knowledge of what it's all about. Just try to get something through the Senate over his opposition."

CHESTER KLINE,
San Jacinto Valley Register, says:

"Senator Swing, through his ability and long service at Sacramento, holds a commanding influence in the Legislature. If the people of San Bernardino County are wise they will see that the Senator is sent back to Sacramento."

ARTHUR J. BROWN,
San Bernardino Evening Telegram, says:

"It will be a major disaster to San Bernardino County if Senator Swing is permitted to retire from his high post. We need Senator Swing at Sacramento much more than he needs to be there in his own interests. It is to our interest and not particularly to his that he should be returned."

San Bernardino Sun:

"We suggest Senator Swing's reelection for the reason his wide experience in public affairs is a highly important matter to the people of San Bernardino County."

Colton Daily Courier:

"Sixteen years of continuous service in the California Senate is the record of Ralph E. Swing, veteran legislator of San Bernardino. During this unbroken term of office Senator Swing has advanced the cause and interests of San Bernardino County perhaps more than any other one individual."

El Sol (Spanish paper):

"Sen. Ralph E. Swing has shown his ability by getting highway and other public improvements in our district in the past few years running into millions of dollars. As some people say, San Bernardino County has been made over in the past few years. This kind of Progress will continue if we reelect Senator Swing at the primaries, a man with a record of worthy achievements."

Victor Press, Victorville:

"Citizens and taxpayers of this county owe an undying gratitude to Senator Ralph E. Swing, for the restoration of the utility properties to the tax rolls of the county, thus bringing an additional thirty million dollars of taxable property to the county and relieving a long borne, unjust burden which taxpayers of this county had been forced to carry."

SCHOOL SYSTEMS NEED SWING

DR. A. E. HANCOCK, PRESIDENT OF THE CITY BOARD OF EDUCATION, WHO KNOWS THE WORK OF SENATOR SWING IN SUPPORT OF OUR SCHOOLS AND EDUCATION, SAYS:

The efficient work done by Senator Swing in behalf of education and the schools of our State is so well known that mentioning it is not necessary. His interest in the education of our youth in order that they may be qualified to be upright and helpful citizens, has resulted in the enactment of many laws in the interest of education. It is a well known fact that through his efforts in revamping the tax system of this State the schools have been able to function and the education of our children advanced. Everyone interested in the welfare of our children and in the schools should actively support Senator Swing for reelection.

MRS. GEORGE F. LORD, PRESIDENT OF THE PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION OF SAN BERNARDINO, SAYS:

"San Bernardino County taxpayers should appreciate the very splendid work and achievements of Senator Ralph E. Swing in transferring the burden of school costs to the State, thus insuring adequate facilities, money and education for the outlying districts. This was done to guarantee that children in the country districts obtain the same advantages as children in metropolitan communities enjoy."

FROM THE MOUNTAINS

TO THE RESIDENTS OF BEAR VALLEY AND ALL MOUNTAIN AREAS:

The work of Senator Swing in causing the City Creek Road to be the biggest and most important mountain development in all times, deserves the commendation of every person interested in the mountain recreational areas. With the completion of this gigantic project the San Bernardino Mountains will have the finest highway into the greatest recreational area in California. Work will start shortly. The accomplishment of this legislative action was due to the energy, ability and standing of Senator Swing. The completion of this project means so much to the mountain areas that we cannot afford to take a chance. Let us show our appreciation of the efforts of Senator Swing by unanimously supporting him for reelection.

REMEMBER! A vote for Swing is a vote for the City Creek Road and for a Prosperous mountain area.

SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY NEEDS RALPH E. SWING.

AGRICULTURE URGES SWING

By Cornelius DeBakesy
Member of 28th District, State Agricultural Association

"It has been my pleasant duty as a director of the state agriculture committee of San Bernardino County to follow in detail the needs, progress, and legislation covering our vast inland empire.

"Unless one were to follow Ralph E. Swing continuously, one would fail to appreciate the great amount of work, efforts, and beneficial results brought to this county by Senator Swing. Few men in public life are so adapted and mentally qualified to do the things Senator Swing has done in behalf of the citizens of this county.

"I cannot too strongly urge his reelection, because I consider him San Bernardino's greatest human asset."

TAXPAYERS FOR SWING

R. F. Garner, Jr.

No matater who may be elected Governor, it is essential to the taxpayers of this County that Ralph E. Swing be returned to the State Senate. His experience and knowledge of legislative matters and his ability to accomplish results is of inestimable value to this County. It would be a serious mistake not to return him to the Senate.

There is neither politics nor party distinction in legislation, and Mr. Swing's services have been both non-partisan and non-political. All parties, irrespective of their political affiliations, should unite in returning him to the State Senate.

GRAPE PRORATE TO BE READY SEPT. 1 AS HARVEST NEARS

Producers, Shippers Expected To Know Details by Next Month

About the time the grapes in Cucamonga, Etiwanda and other sections of the district are ready for harvesting, the California prorate will be in effect.

At least, one step has been taken in enforcement of the recently approved prorate plan. An office will be established in Ontario for administration of the prorate in this area. L. E. Knauer has been appointed manager of the Ontario office.

Additional information about the prorate program will be offered at a meeting of grape growers in the Cucamonga school on Wednesday night. This will be the third consecutive weekly meeting concerning marketing plans, prices and means of handling the large crop.

Terms of the prorate are to be effective September 1, according to information received here. Mr. Knauer, the new district manager, may be at the Cucamonga meeting to explain the act and to supervise shipments from this district.

An effort is being made by Cucamonga growers to obtain a price of $25 a ton for Zinfandel grapes.

Elks Picnic Will Be Held Sunday

Hundreds of persons are expected at the fifth annual Elks lodge charity picnic and barbecue to be held at the Fuller ranch, southeast of Ontario, Sunday. The event is planned as a "family picnic for Elks and their guests."

All net proceeds will go to the Elks charity fund. The money will be expended by the lodge in aiding underprivileged children and others in the district.

Godfrey Andreas will prepare and serve the barbecue. Adults will be charged an admission and children under 12 years of age will be admitted free.

WHAT'S THE HURRY?

George Savage in Inyo Independent: Was driving through a narrow street section in downtown Los Angeles the other day, when a more timid motorist saw me coming and pulled to the side. As I drew up to his car, he leaned out the window and shouted, "Must be in a hurry, huh, be when you get there you'll just sit down." The humor of the remark about hurrying didn't bring a chuckle until I was a block away. There's a lot hurrying we do that's hardly necessary. Usually when we reach our destination we "just sit down." Wonder if Americans will ever learn to take things a little slower? We might live longer then, and there'd be fewer auto accidents.

A denizen of the hills of East Tennessee, who was appearing as a witness in a lawsuit, was being questioned as to his educational qualifications by the plaintiff's lawyer.

"Can you write?" asked the lawyer.

"Nope."

"Can you read?"

"Wa'al, I kin read figgers pretty well, but I don't do so good with writin'."

"How is that?'"

"Wa'al, take these here signs along the road when I go somers; I kin read how fur, but not whurto."

A woman traveling by train was talking with the man in the next seat. In describing her holiday, she said has had visited San Jose.

"You pronounce that wrong," said the man. "It is San Hosay. In California you should pronounce all J's as H's. When were you there?"

The woman thought a minute, then answered, "In Hune and Huly."

NATION'S PRIZE PERCHERONS COMING FOR COUNTY FAIR

For the first time in its history the annual show of the Percheron Horse Assn. of America will be brought to the west and will be held in conjunction with the Los Angeles County Fair at Pomona, Sept. 16 to Oct. 2. Between 250 and 300 of these magnificent huge draft animals from all parts of the nation will be on display. Incidentally, California will contribute some of the finest animals of all. Here is California Nina, prize Percheron owned by the University of California with Lucile Hutchinson, left, and Leora Sanstad, right, of the home economics department of the University.

HOTPOINT NEEDS ONE MORE GAME

Ontario Plays at Rialto Tonight in Deciding Clash Of Round

One more victory, that over Rialto tonight, will cinch the championship of the Central league second round for Hotpoint. The two teams play on the Rialto grounds. If Rialto should win, that team has a slim chance of tying up the league.

With Cab Calloway going strong, however, that isn't likely. Having defeated Rialto on several occasions, Hotpoint is expected to put the finishing touches on any hopes of any other team for a tie.

On Tuesday Hotpoint plays at Redlands in the final game of the league; San Bernardino and Hotpoint will probably play next week in the first of a series of league play-offs. San Bernardino won the first round title.

Patriotic Orders Will Hold Picnic In Park Saturday

Final arrangements for the joint patriotic picnic to be held Saturday in Galvin park in Ontario under the sponsorship of the Sons of Union Veterans and the Woman's Auxiliary to the Sons, were made during the regular meeting of the Auxiliary held Tuesday evening in the Ontario American Legion hall. Mrs. Sadie Benner of Upland, president of the Auxiliary, presided.

The picnic dinner will be held at 6:30 tomorrow evening and members of all allied patriotic orders, and the American Legion and Legion Auxiliary as well, are cordially invited to join in the event. Each one is to bring table service, a covered dish and sandwiches. The Sons and Auxiliary will provide the coffee and ice cream and cake. Mrs. Oran E. Burt is chairman of the dinner committee. Mrs. T. A. Evans, program chairman, is arranging interesting entertainment.

Miss Mada Kauffman, who has been seriously ill, resigned as secretary and the president named Mrs. Emerson Gillilan to succeed her.

Among the communications read were a letter from the department president, Mrs. Esther Watts of Pasadena, giving instruction concerning the annual department encampment to be held at Pacific Palisades, beginning Tuesday, Sept. 20, and a letter from the state commander outlining the program and giving other information. The local Auxiliary is to servie as the hostess organization at the encampment on Sept. 23.

Committee reports showed 32 calls made and 14 bouquets presented and material to the value of $1.10 and cash in the amount of $11 contributed to welfare work.

It was voted to donate jelly to the encampment bazaar and Mrs. Leslie Strawn was named chairman of that project.

F. E. O'Brien gave an account of the recent community dinner given for first-time voters.

Mrs. Benner urged all officers to be present for initiation ceremonies on Sept. 27.

Cucamonga-Alta Loma

ATTEND HOME COMING

Mrs. M. I. McCarty and her daughter, Mrs. Vivian M. Santolucito, motored to Brea Tuesday and attended the annual home coming picnic held in the beautiful Brea park. The McCartys resided in Brea more than 20 years ago and among the 1500 picnickers Mrs. McCarty found many friends. A big barbecue dinner was served and there was a program, including a band concert.

Mrs. McCarty had as her guests Wednesday at her home, 112 San Bernardino avenue, Cucamonga, a friend, Mrs. Burnie Roath and daughter, Betty Jo, of Santa Cruz, who were visiting in the southland for a time.

EPWORTH LEAGUE TO MEET

With Phillip Capen as leader, a discussion of the subject, "Valve of Character," will provide the program when the young people of the Epworth League of the Cucamonga Community church meet at 7 o'clock Sunday evening at the E. E. Perdew home, 1673 North Archibald avenue, Alta Loma, as guests of Dorothy Jean, Jack and Bob Perdew.

The regular League meeting will be followed by a social hour and all young people of the community are invited to be present.

RELATIVES ENTERTAINED

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Thompson, who have been touring the west since early in June, left this morning for Long Beach on their return trip to their Wisconsin home, after visiting for the past two weeks with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rupp and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Keyes in Alta Loma.

A farewell dinner was given on Wednesday evening at the Rupp home, those gathering to visit with the Thompsons being Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Phipps and Mrs. Bertha Ryan of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beckley, Nathan Emory and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Keyes of Alta Loma, Mr. and Mrs. Rupp and daughter, Miss Mary Belle Rupp. Others coming in later in the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Deems and Mrs. Ruth Taux of Ontario and Mrs. Marshall Pruitt of Upland.

On a previous day Mr. and Mrs. Keyes were hosts at a noon day dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Parker Kilgore, a relative from Colton, and her daughter, Mrs. Nora Ramige of Upland, and Harry Hoover of Glendale.

ATTEND REUNION

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Keyes of Alta Loma and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Keyes and daughter Earlene of Cucamonga, motored to Pasadena last Sunday and attended a big family reunion held at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Parker. Two wedding anniversaries and six birthday anniversaries were celebrated and 25 relatives were in attendance.

Miss Marjorie Parker and friends of Pasadena, who have been guests this week of Miss Kathleen Beckley at the Beckley cabin at Big Bear, will return to Pasadena this evening and will stop for a brief visit with Miss Parker's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Keyes.
